

Sam Dodson Biography

In 1977 Sam was a founder member of the Transmitters and they recorded two sessions for the late great John Peel. They recorded 2 albums and 3 singles. The Transmitters have just released the compilation 'I Fear No-One...' on Elsewhen Records which has received great critical acclaim. He also served as sometime Good Missionary with Mark Perry.

Sam formed Loop Guru in 1985 with Jamuud who recorded 13 albums, recorded 5 John Peel sessions and toured extensively, including over 50 gigs in the USA well over a 100 in Europe. Loop Guru had two tracks in the movie 'Entrapment' and had tracks in many TV programmes. They also remixed for the likes of Jean Michel Jarre, Mikey Hart, Youth, Banco de Gaia and many more.

Sam's first solo project Slipper released 'Invisible Movies' on the Aphex Twin's Rephlex imprint. Slipper have gone on to release a further 4 albums.

Sam's latest project Loungeclash, with Neil Sparkes, released their debut album 'Dread Time Story' on Acrobat, to great critical acclaim!
