

ZERVAS & PEPPER

'Zervas & Pepper' are singer/songwriters Paul Zervas and Kathryn Pepper. With a shared passion for 'radio friendly', 'west-coast' folk-rock they have created a sound that blends a classic 70's California vibe with a feeling that encompasses much of today's modern folk-rock acts.

Think 'C,S,N&Y', 'The Eagles', 'Fleetwood Mac' and then add the contemporary harmonic edge of 'Midlake' 'Fleet Foxes' & 'She & Him' Since forming in 2008 Z&P have released 2 EP's that have garnered much radio play and playlisting . 2011 Zervas & Pepper released their first full album 'Somewhere in The City' which has recieved heavy Radio play, two singles being playlisted on BBC Radio Wales and Single 'It's a Sleepless Night' was also high lighted as Single of the week. Zervas and Pepper also regularly give interviews and live performances on BBC Radio Wales.

Zervas & Pepper are creating a reputation for engaging live performance and quality songcraft. 2011 finds the group playing live shows with quality acts such as 'The High Llamas', 'Judy Collins', ('The Chapin Sisters' usually found playing for 'She & Him'). Z&P have recently performed backing vocals on the new 'Christiaan Webb' (Webb Brothers) album 'A Man Possesed'.
